

Sibila Konstantinova Piano

Bulgarian pianist Sibila Konstantinova completed her Bachelor and Master degrees in Piano Performance under a full scholarship at the Guildhall School of Music and Drama London with Joan Havill. Before moving to Vienna to study Piano Chamber Music with Avedis Kouyoumdjian at the University of Music and Performing Arts, she was a recipient of the prestigious GSMD Artist Fellowship from 2007 to 2009. Among her many awards are the Philharmonia Orchestra/MMF Award, the MBF Award and the Dame Myra Hess Award.

As a soloist and chamber musician Sibila has performed extensively throughout Europe in venues such as the Barbican Centre and the Queen Elizabeth Hall in London, the Grand Hall "Bulgaria" in Sofia and the Delft Chamber Music Festival, Grachtenfestival Amsterdam and the Festspiele Europäische Wochen Passau. Her performances have been recorded by the Bulgarian National Television and radio, the Performance Channel (UK), Radio Ö1 (Austria) and NDR4 (Holland).

As of 2013, Sibila is a lecturer for piano chamber music and an assistant of Avedis Kouyoumdjian at the University of Music and Performing Arts in Vienna.
